Requests for admission are written requests by a party to an action requiring that any other party to the action either admit or deny, under oath, the truth of certain facts or the genuineness of certain documents. For information on timing, the number of admissions a party may request from any other party, service of requests and responses, restrictions on the style, format, and scope of requests for admission and responses to requests, and other details	s, see Code of Civil Procedure section	ons 94–95, 1013, and 2033.010–2033.420 and the case law relating to those sections.
